

Cúram for Youth Services

Key Business Challenges

CÚRAM
SOFTWARE

"...found that hundreds of children who should be in the Commonwealth's child welfare and mental health systems are being jailed because <state> has failed to provide these systems with sufficient resources."

SOURCE: CHILDREN GO TO JAIL FOR LACK OF OPTIONS, Robin Dahlberg and Amy Reichbach

"These youth come disproportionately from impoverished single-parent homes located in disinvested neighborhoods and have high rates of learning disabilities, mental health, and substance abuse problems."

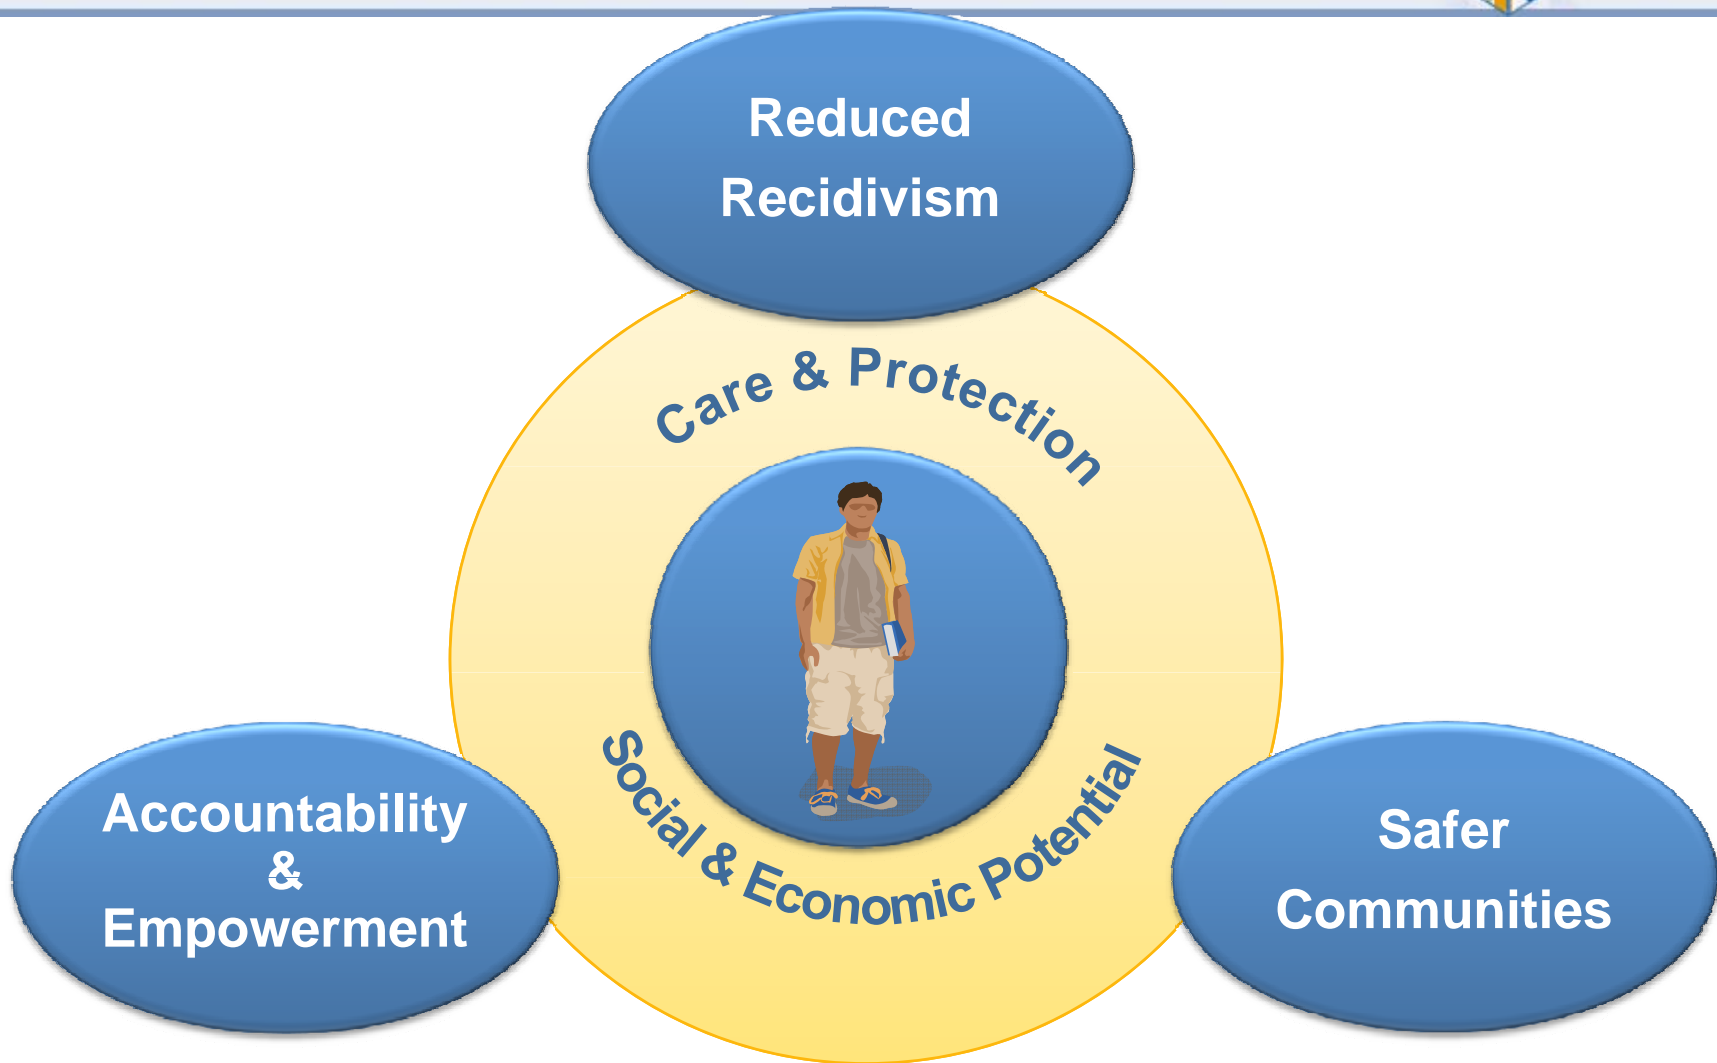

SOURCE: Annie E. Casey Foundation, Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative

"Most services for children and families in the United States are categorical, fragmented and uncoordinated."

SOURCE: COLLABORATION IN THE JUVENILE JUSTICE SYSTEM AND YOUTH SERVING AGENCIES: IMPROVING PREVENTION, PROVIDING MORE EFFICIENT SERVICES, AND REDUCING RECIDIVISM FOR YOUTH WITH DISABILITIES, Peter Leone

"Detention is a stronger predictor of recidivism among juveniles..."

SOURCE: Annie E. Casey Foundation, Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative

Cúram for Youth Services Approach

Support Core Business Processes, Focus on Outcomes & Collaboration

CÚRAM
SOFTWARE

